Unique Template-Free approach

Our template-free approach reduces set up time by 30% -70%. No need to create and maintain multitudes of document templates that escalate TCO and increase time-to-value.

AI/ML-enabled, greater degree of automation & accuracy

Pre-built AI/ML capabilities and business rules enable automated verification and validation of data. Continuous learning based on AI/ML algorithms and user inputs. Cognitive capabilities deliver a greater percentage of STP with a higher accuracy, thereby reducing manual effort and saving time.

Deployment flexibility as per your business requirements

Deploy the IDP solution in the cloud or on-premises as per your business requirements. Cloud deployment ensures infrastructure flexibility and scalability with increasing IT workloads.

Recommendations

- Consider cloud deployment option for TCO savings and infrastructure flexibility.
- Adopt a platform approach to automation, reduces the friction involved in using disparate products offered by different vendors.
- Leverage AI/ML capabilities for intelligent automation, pursue to a data-led approach to automation when necessary.
- Business-IT alignment is key, as is the case with every strategic initiative. Need to reduce friction between “People, Process, and Technology” aspects to achieve scale.
- Establish an automation CoE for systematic adoption at enterprise level. Foster development of automation skills and prepare for change management.
